2. As in the case of Colonel Brereton and Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde White, His Highness' Government would have no objection to pay Lieutenant Boome at the British rates, should the Madras Government so decide.

In returning your endorsement, No. 666, dated 28th March 1895, with its enclosures, I have the honour to state that as from the correspondence attached Lieutenant E. H. POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From J. ANDREW, Esq., Political Agent for Pudukkóttai, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Trichinopoly, 1st April 1895, No. 62-O—500.

Certain Government promissory notes in a special form stand in the name of His Highness the Raja of Pudukkóttai. During the time of the late Raja, Messrs. Binny and Co. were authorized by the late Raja to draw the interest on the same, and the then Diwan (Seshiah Sastriar) was authorized by the Raja to draw cheques up to a maximum of Rs. 50,000. The money standing to the credit of the Raja with Messrs. Binny and Co. would doubtless have been almost entirely State money, as I think the late Raja kept no private money with that firm. I have not, however, thought it necessary to verify this.

2. In G.O., dated 16th September 1886, No. 856, Political, Government declared that the Diwan temporarily administering the government of Pudukkóttai State should have the same powers in respect to public funds as were exercised by the late Raja, and on the strength of that Government order the late Diwan-Regent throughout the Regency drew the interest on the notes. On the present Diwan applying for the interest in the same way, the Bank of Madras declined to allow him to draw it in the absence of an order of Government of India authorizing him (Diwan) to deal with the Government promissory notes standing in the name of the Raja, or of a power of attorney executed by His Highness the Raja in favour of the Diwan.

3. As the securities referred to are State property, it would in some ways be convenient—if such a course is not irregular—for Government to authorize the Diwan for the time being to deal with the securities standing in the name of His Highness the Raja, and if Government approves of this course I beg that orders may issue to this effect. The other course would be for His Highness to execute a general power of attorney in favour of the Diwan authorizing him to deal with the securities in question. Each course has certain advantages and disadvantages which need not be here specified, and as I presume that in other States also, there are special securities relating to the State funds which are dealt with in some prescribed and uniform manner, I think it would be well to deal with the Pudukkóttai securities in the same manner.

4. As the securities amount to a very large sum (four lakhs and fifty thousand including Manovirty and Devasthanam funds) I have thought it better to refer the matter to Government.

From T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 26th April 1895, No. 1018.

I have the honour to return the Government endorsement, No. 795, Political, dated 10th instant, on letter from the Political Agent for Pudukkóttai, No. 62-O—500, dated the 1st April 1895, and to report that there seems to be no objection to Government recognising the Diwan of Pudukkóttai for the time being as the Agent to draw the interest on Government securities belonging to that State. A similar course was sanctioned for the Travancore State in G.O., No. 692, Political, dated 29th November 1892.

ORDER—dated 9th May 1895, No. 306, Political.

The Government recognises the Diwan of Pudukkóttai, for the time being, as the accredited Agent for drawing the interest on, and effecting the renewal and consolidation of, Government securities belonging to that State.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., dated 12th November 1894, Nos. 787, 788, Political.

ABSTRACT.—Stating that there is no objection to the grant to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White by the Travancore Darbar of exchange compensation allowance.

READ—also the following papers:—

From H. B. GRIGG, Esq., M.A., C.I.E., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cochin, 11th March 1895, Ref. on C. No. 639.

With reference to G.O., dated 12th November 1894, No. 787, Political, regarding the grant of exchange compensation allowance to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White, Darbar Physician, Travancore, I have the honour to submit, for the orders of Government, copy of a letter from the Diwan in which he asks for instructions on certain points connected with the grant of the allowance. As regards the point raised in paragraphs 1–4 of this letter, I have to observe that in G.O., dated 9th ultimo, No. 104, the Government has just decided that the compensation is payable to Colonel W. T. Brereton on his consolidated salary of Rs. 1,200. It seems to me therefore that the calculation should be made in Dr. White's case also on the same consolidated amount he draws, viz., Rs. 1,200.

2. In regard to paragraph 5 of the Diwan's letter I think that no deduction is to be made for remittances made prior to 11th February 1894 and the Sirkar may be authorized to pay Dr. White monthly the whole of the compensation due without reference to me. The question whether any remittance was made by Dr. White from 20th October 1894 up to date will, I presume, be referred to the Controller of Military Accounts for report.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Diwan of Travancore, to the British Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Trivandrum, 21st February 1895, No. 355-A.

Adverting to your office letters noted in the margin, I have the honour to state that the amount on which exchange compensation is admissible in the case of Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White is not mentioned in the Government order, while in the case of Colonel Brereton it was expressly laid down that allowance is payable only on Rs. 1,000: vide paragraph 2 of order, No. 6063, Military, printed with Madras G.O., No. 721, dated 19th October 1894.

(1) Ref. on C. No. 3829, dated 29th November 1894.
(2) Ref. on C. No. 442–1895, dated 14th February 1895.

2. I observe that the word "salary" is defined for the purpose of calculating compensation allowance in paragraph 11 of the rules printed with the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, Resolution, No. 3624-A, dated Simla, the 18th August 1893. I think it advisable therefore to obtain an authoritative ruling on the subject before payment is made.

3. The salary attached to the place of Darbar Physician was Rs. 1,000 until 1865, when Dr. H. M. Ross was granted an increase of Rs. 100 for the charge of the civil and lying-in hospitals (vide your office No. 1916, dated 21st November 1865). Dr. White's starting salary as Darbar Physician was, therefore, Rs. 1,100. He had an increase of Rs. 100 from the 16th August 1891 (vide your office No. 1558, dated 17th November 1891). He thus gets a consolidated pay of Rs. 1,200 a month at present.

4. In these circumstances, I request you will be good enough to let me know as early as convenient whether Dr. White's allowance as sanctioned by the Madras Government is to be on Rs. 1,000 or Rs. 1,200.

5. There are some other points of doubt in this connection which I should like to get cleared. It is stated by the Comptroller of Military Accounts that Dr. White has remitted £200 during the period from 1st April 1893 to 20th October 1894, and a sum of Rs. 301-5-5 has to be remitted to your treasury for adjustment on account of this remittance. Dr. White becomes entitled to exchange compensation from this Government only from 11th February 1894 (1st Mausi 1069). I shall thank you to inform me—

(1) whether a deduction has to be made for remittances he made prior to that date;

(2) whether any remittance was made by Dr. White for the period from 20th October 1894 to date and, if so, what further deduction has to be made; and

(3) whether in future this Government may pay him monthly the whole of the compensation due without any deduction and without reference to you: vide paragraph 3 of the Government of India notification quoted above.

From the Controller of Military Accounts, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, the 23rd of April 1895, No. 344-G.

In returning your endorsement, No. 686, dated the 28th March 1895, with its annexures, I have the honour to state that Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White, Darbar Physician, Travancore, would appear entitled to exchange compensation allowance on Rs. 1,200, which is stated to be the consolidated salary he is in receipt of from the Travancore Government, which this office is not in a position to verify.

2. Since 1st April 1893, Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White has made only one family remittance through this office, i.e., for Rs. 2,865-10-9 (£200). This amount was paid into the Bank of Madras on the 27th February 1894 and remitted by this office by the mail of the 1st March 1894. No other family remittances have been made by him through this office.

ORDER—dated 15th May 1895, No. 320, Political.

His Excellency the Governor in Council has no objection to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel H. P. Esmonde-White drawing exchange compensation allowance on Rs. 1,200.

2. As Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel Esmonde-White has made a family remittance since the date (11th February 1894) from which the Travancore Darbar granted him the allowance, the Resident will arrange for the adjustment which should be made on account of the remittance.

3. Future payments on account of exchange compensation allowance may be made to Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel Esmonde-White by the Travancore Darbar without reference to the Resident.

Paragraph 3 of the Government Order.—Cholera broke out on the island on the 23rd December 1893 and continued till the close of March. In February, when information of its prevalence was received, a supply of medicines was sent to the island and a portion of it was used by the amin to whom instructions for their use were sent out. It appears from the birth and death register of the island that 998 persons—442 males and 556 females—succumbed to the disease. At present it is not possible to trace the origin of the disease, as there was no medical officer on the spot, but enquiries will be made during the next inspection and the result reported.

Resolution—dated 4th May 1895, Mis. No. 2250.

Submitted to Government with reference to G.O., dated 5th March 1895, No. 155, Political.

2. The details of mortality from cholera on the Island of Androth during 1893-94, as now furnished by the Collector, confirm the estimate made in paragraph 4 of his administration report, and prove that about one-third of the whole population succumbed to this disease. A supply of medicines was sent to the island as soon as the outbreak was reported, but in the absence of medical assistance it is to be feared that the medicines were of small practical use in stopping the epidemic. The Collector promises to have enquiries made at the next inspection as to the cause of the outbreak, and the Board considers that the opportunity should be taken to instruct the islanders how to provide against the recurrence of such outbreaks and how to stamp them out, when they do occur, by taking the promptest measures with the very first case.

3. A set of very simple rules for the guidance of the islanders might be drawn up on the basis of the rules published in the Village Officers'. Manual.

From H. B. GRIGG, Esq., M.A., C.I.E., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Trichur, 21st March 1895, Ref. on C. No. 468.

I have the honour to submit, herewith, the return of graves of Europeans and Eurasians buried in Travancore and Cochin up to the close of 1894, called for in paragraph 2 of G.O., dated 5th ultimo, No. 88, Political. I have reason to think that the list is incomplete so far as two or three burials in 1894 are concerned. This being due to the failure of some of the ecclesiastical authorities in the States to furnish the returns called for from them, I am inviting their attention to the matter, and such of the graves as are now omitted will be included in the return for the current year. I beg to request that, when the list is printed, 50 copies of the same may be separately struck off and sent to me for distribution.

2. Arrangements will be made for the submission of the annual lists called for in paragraph 3 of the Government Order under reply within the prescribed date; and as regards the maintenance of the old graves now in existence, action will be taken as indicated in paragraph 4 of Captain Daly's letter printed in the same Government Order.

With reference to G.O., No. 88, dated 5th February 1895, I have the honour to submit herewith a revised return of graves of Europeans, including those of persons buried up to the end of 1894.

2. The Diwan reports that there are no graves of Eurasians in Pudukkótta which are of historical or archæological interest: a note to this effect has been made in the return now submitted.

Graves of Eurasians which are of historical or archæological interest have been entered in the lists. The Resident in Travancore and Cochin reports that he has reason to believe that the lists for those States are incomplete so far as two or three burials in 1894 are concerned, owing to the failure of some of the Ecclesiastical authorities to furnish returns. Never was a purer or more exalted mind than that which once animated the dust that sleeps below, nor were the propensities he inherited from nature enfeebled by inaction or wasted in judicious effort. He was a living spring of beneficence to all around him and feelings of esteem and regard were become inseparably associated with his name in the enjoyment of honourably earned reputation and whilst fondly exulting in those newly formed ties which promised domestic bliss to his future years sank into an untimely tomb. The officers of the corps which he commanded erected this monument as a faint tribute to his public and private worth and as a mark of their unavailing sorrow for his irreparable loss.

Directing, with remarks, the transmission to the Government of India of a return of — up to the end of 1894.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. D. REES, Esq., C.I.E., (sub. pro tem.) Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cochin, 17th May 1895, Ref. on C. No. 1475.

The Diwan of Travancore applies for the services of a competent medical officer to succeed Dr. Innes, Surgeon, Nayar Brigade, intelligence of whose death has, I regret to report, been received from Europe.

2. The terms offered are those which Dr. Innes accepted and they are contained in the annexed copy of his agreement with the Government of Travancore, which the Diwan has furnished.

3. When Dr. Innes was appointed, the Secretary of State considered (G.O., dated 4th October 1893, No. 684, Political) a course of instruction in General Hospital, Madras (G.O., dated 13th November 1893, No. 762, Political) preferable to a course at Netley which had been suggested.

4. The Diwan states that his Government will gladly accept a similar arrangement in regard to Dr. Innes' successor, but that if no course at Madras is considered necessary, that officer's service will commence from the date of his reporting his arrival at Trivandrum (G.O., dated 24th November 1893, No. 807) and not from the date of report of arrival at Madras as provided by paragraph 5 of agreement.

5. Should application be made to Secretary of State, as was done in the case of Dr. Innes' appointment, the Darbar asks that arrangements may be made for the nominee's examination by a Medical Board in order that he may be pronounced medically fit for duty in India before coming out (G.O., dated 20th April 1891, No. 207).

6. The Darbar offers the same terms mutatis mutandis to an officer selected from the British Medical Service who may in point of professional qualification and Indian experience be found eligible. I understand, however, that Government is not likely to be able to spare the services of such an officer.

7. In that case and for the reason that the conditions are the same as those obtaining in the case of Dr. Innes, which are on record in the India Office, perhaps Government will be pleased to make a telegraphic application to the Secretary of State.

8. I venture to suggest the adoption of this course because the Diwan by letter and by word of mouth asks that early action may be taken, and because in a year of abnormal sickness Trivandrum is short of its proper complement of medical officers.

9. The medical charge of the Residency and of the Residency hospital was also held by Dr. Innes, but the Resident (G.Os., dated 4th April 1894, No. 220, Political, and 23rd November 1894, No. 832, Political), subject to the approval of Government, makes this appointment. Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel Esmonde-White, Darbar Physician, who officiated in charge of Residency and Residency hospital during Dr. Innes' absence on leave, draws the full allowance now, as he did before Dr. Innes' death. He has applied to me to be confirmed in that appointment urging his superior claims as a senior officer in the British service. He will continue to hold charge for the present and I think the question whether he should be confirmed, or Dr. Innes' successor again be appointed to the charge of the Residency and the Residency hospital, is one which the permanent Resident should decide. The question is not necessarily connected with that of a successor to Dr. Innes, as no reference is made to it in the draft agreement, from paragraph 3 of which it would appear that originally such plural holdings in the case of the Nayar Brigade Surgeon were not contemplated.

ENCLOSURE.

From the Diwan of Travancore, to the British Resident in Travancore and Cochin, dated Trivandrum, 6th May 1895, No. 1868-924 M.

It having become necessary, owing to the unfortunate death of Dr. Innes, to obtain the services of a competent medical man for His Highness the Maharajah's Nayar Brigade, I have the honour to request you will be good enough to move the Secretary of State for India, through your Government, in view to one being selected.

2. The salary and other terms under which the new officer has to serve appear in the annexed copy of Dr. Innes' agreement with this Government.

3. If in the opinion of the Madras Government the officer selected should have a course of training in the Madras General Hospital, as in the case of Dr. Innes, this Government will gladly accept the arrangement. If no such course is deemed necessary, his service will commence from date of reporting his arrival at Trivandrum, not at Madras as stated in paragraph 5 of the annexed agreement.

4. This Government would be thankful if arrangements could also be made for the nominee being examined by a Medical Board and pronounced physically fit for duty in India, before coming out.

5. I should add that if the Madras Government consider that the selection could be made from the British Indian Medical Service, this Government would be very glad to secure the services of one who may, both in point of professional qualification and Indian experience, be found quite eligible. The same terms will, of course, be granted him mutatis mutandis.

6. I shall be obliged by your kindly taking early action in the matter.

ORDER—dated 30th May 1895, No. 348, Political.

3. The Surgeon-General will arrange for the officer selected by the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India undergoing a course of training in the General Hospital, Madras, similar to that approved of in G.O., dated 13th November 1893, No. 762, Political.
